

GLPLAYOUT™.com

What is GLPlayout

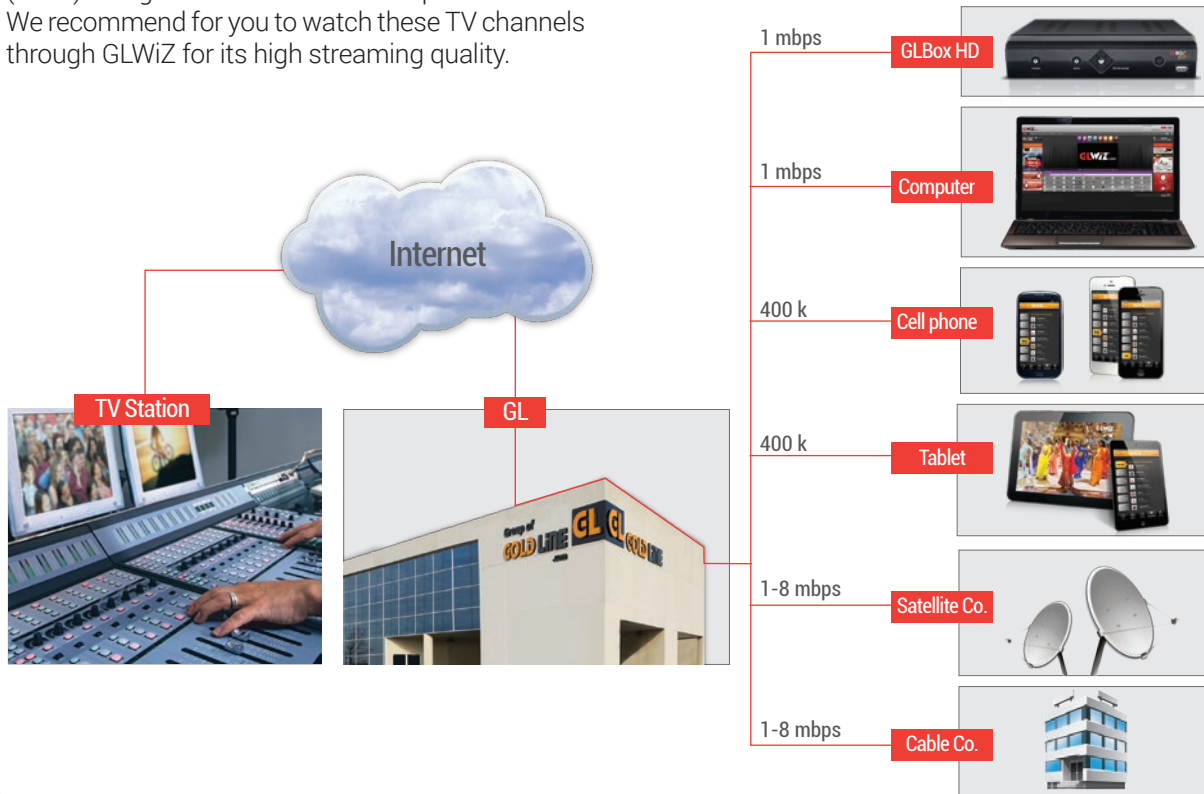

GLPlayout transfers signals directly from TV stations to GLWiZ website, satellite or cable companies with HD or SD quality.

How it works

For the use of GLPlayout, client needs an Exclusive or Public Dedicated High Speed Internet with 5 to 10 Mbps upload capacity for HD or 2 to 5 Mbps upload capacity for SD, a server with the technical specifications indicated below, as well as a Video Capture Card with GLSoftware.

GLPlayout will then forward the TV channel with HD or SD quality signals to the GLWiZ website, any satellite or cable company, using appropriate bandwidth.

To test the quality of GLPlayout, check the following channels on GLWiZ: Kahkeshan (#108) and AFN (#131) using this solution with 1Mbps bandwidth. We recommend for you to watch these TV channels through GLWiZ for its high streaming quality.
