

WHAT IS GLWEBTV?

GLWebTV is a subscription-based, high quality WebTV platform that offers viewers a wide selection of current and classic live TV Channels, TV Series, Movies, Radio, Video on Demand (VOD), and Pay-Per-View programming. GLWebTV is currently marketed under two well-recognized international brand names. The first being GLWiZ.com which connects Iranian, Afghani, Tajik, Azerbaijani, Armenian, Assyrian and Kurdish language communities while GLARAB.com connects Arabic-speaking communities back to their culture and language.

GLWiZ.com and GLARAB.com bring together:

- 400+ live TV channels, plus hundreds of Radio Stations
- 20,000+ hours of VOD, movies and TV series
- A diverse selection of Pay-Per-View programming

WATCH FROM ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD

Thanks to a proprietary software application developed in-house by the GL product development team, GLWebTV enables customers to enjoy ethnic programming from anywhere in the world. Strategically placed GLHubs in major markets allow us to broadcast at the highest resolution possible with fewer quality issues and buffering delays. A minimum of 2 mbps of internet service is all that's required to enjoy GLWebTV.

In addition, GL has established relationships with content delivery network (CDNs) providers which allow us to deliver a higher quality service to our WebTV customers. This means that GLWebTV programming is integrated with an established world expansive network, making for a seamless viewing experience no matter where it is being accessed.

GLWEBTV AT A GLANCE

- GLWiZ.com, launched in 2007, regularly receives approximately 2 million visitors/month and more than 5 million page views.
- GLWiZ.com currently has over 500,000 registered paid and unpaid subscribers world-wide.
- GLARAB.com, launched in 2011, offers more than 250 TV channels, plus a large selection of TV programming from 21 Arabic countries.
- Viewership for GLWiZ.com and GLARAB.com is global with the majority coming from Europe and North America.
- GLHubs are located in major centers including: Toronto, New York, Los Angeles, Paris and Istanbul. GL is ready to add more hubs as needed to increase quality and experience for users around the world.
